Mini FerMonster™ carboy 11 litres

Finally, a PET fermenting bottle for your medium-size batches. All the advantages of glass without the risk of breakage. The 11-litre capacity is suitable for your medium-size batches of beer or wine. The large 4 inch (10.16 cm) mouth opening makes the fermenter easy to clean. Adding dry hopping is also no problem.

- easy cleaning: due to smooth, ribless sides which reduce residual yeast and sediment and a 4" wide mouth
- screw lid with O-ring for a guaranteed airtight closure
- made with food-grade materials & BPA-free
- made of heavy PET: nearly unbreakable and impermeable to oxygen penetration
- completely taste and odour-free
